Man, 19, shot fatally in alley

Edward Robertson, 19, of 2936 Denver St., was fatally wounded when he was shot in the back near the alley behind the 2100 block of Delmar Avenue at about 12:45 a.m. Sunday.

Police have released a 49-year-old Granite City man, who says he shot Mr. Robertson, pending consideration Thursday by a Madison County grand jury.

The man who says he fired the fatal shot allegedly gave

Weather outlook for this region

Cloudy and mild today and tomorrow. Chance of thundershowers today and tonight. High today in the low to mid 70s. Low tonight about 60. Thundershowers likely Tuesday with high in the mid 70s. Several periods of thundershowers expected Wednesday through Friday. Highs during the period in the upper 70s to low 80s. Lows in the low 60s.

Granite City police a statement that he saw two youths apparently attempting to take gasoline from his pickup truck. He fired about four shots at them with a .22 caliber pistol, he related.

The man said he "fired low" and did not know a bullet had struck one of the youths.

One youth present when the shots were fired was unhurt. He has been questioned by police and released pending further investigation.

Mr. Robertson was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was declared dead upon arrival at 1:08 a.m. Sunday.

Officers reported there were no signs of life when they first found Mr. Robertson behind 2146 Delmar Ave., several houses from where the shooting occurred.

An empty gallon milk jug and four spent .22 caliber bullets were found in a driveway a few houses away from Mr. Robertson's body. A piece of garden hose was found next door to the jug, the bullets and the pickup truck.

The man who says he was involved in the shooting said he looked out a back door and saw two youths behind his truck. He said they must have climbed over a fence around the yard, since there was a padlock on the gate of the drive.

He did not know he had struck either youth, he said, but noted

Suit by 5 candidates

Five of the apparent losers in the April 5 Nameoki Township election filed suit Thursday challenging the outcome, requesting that the vote totals in Precincts 6, 8 and 11 be thrown out and asking that the five petitioners be declared the winners.

The suit was filed in Madison County Circuit Court for defeated Supervisor Louis Whitsett, unsuccessful tax assessor candidate Loren Madison and trustee candidates Kenneth Giesen, an incumbent, and Mrs. Helen Hawkins and Harlan Fervan.

Defendants are Supervisor Harold Davis, Assessor Carl Macios and Trustees W. Lee Adams, Jerry Adams and Norman Hessler, seated last week as township officials.

The suit, filed by H. Carl Kung, former town attorney, makes numerous allegations in its three counts.

Count One alleges there are more than 800 registered voters residing in Nameoki Township Precinct Six while the law calls for precincts with more than 800 voters to be split.

Counting that Precinct Six "does not constitute a legal precinct..." Runge requests that the court invalidate the ballots cast there.

Count Two makes several allegations about the conduct of the election in Precincts 5, 6, 8 and 11.

It alleges that in Precinct 5, Macios was in the polling place after it was closed and during the tabulation of the vote even though he is not a resident of that precinct.

In Precinct 6, it is alleged that Jerry Adams was in the polling place after it closed and during the tabulation of the vote, and it further contends he discussed with a judge "his relative position as a candidate during the count."

Three allegations are made about the Precinct 8 polling

Drugs still a problem; arrest 34

In a coordinated series of arrests, police and undercover narcotics agents of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGSI) served arrest warrants on 34 persons early Friday, including 27 persons in the Quad-City area. Additional arrests are expected.

MEGSI Director Gary Bossio described Friday's arrests as "the most productive MEGSI has had," and said he believes "a large number of the area's major traffickers in drugs and marijuana" were arrested.

Some of those arrested already are on probation or parole, at least one from MEGSI arrests in March 1976. Granite City Chief of Police Ronald Veizer pledged every effort will be made to see that those already on parole or probation, if convicted in the latest arrests, will serve time in prison.

It was noted the arrests were conducted by MEGSI agents and police from eight other departments cooperated in the arrests with the entire operation being conducted from the Granite City police headquarters.

E. 24th break

A new break in a sanitary sewer line in the 2800 block of East 24th Street has developed and appears to be a major break that will require bypass pumping until replacement work can be undertaken. It was reported today.

Street Superintendent Lionel Portell said the break is located on an easement on East 24th Street at the entrance to Anchorage Homes.

"We detected a fault in the sewer line at that point with our televising and grouting equipment about six months ago," Portell said.

"Since then, we have been watching the condition of the line which now apparently has collapsed at one point," he added. He said the sewer division of the Street Department has not yet begun pumping operations. "But it appears obvious we will have to set up pumps to bypass the collapsed area."

DRIVEWAY ACCESS to homes along Pershing Blvd. between Garden and Marshall Avenues is one of the main points of protest by residents along the street who are objecting to delay since December in completing a street project. Access is over culvert pipes covered by rock. This view is of a driveway at 2919 and 2923 Pershing, looking toward Marshall.

Delay cited on Pershing

Work got underway today on the grading of Pershing Boulevard between Garden and Marshall avenues to complete a project which was halted last December.

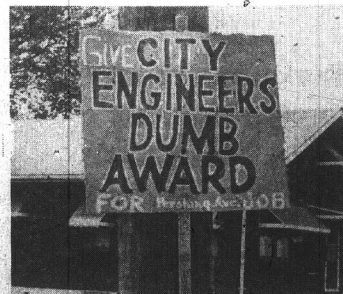

The delay has resulted in criticism of street and engineering officials by persons in the neighborhood.

Residents of the street say that the city has completed a project to install curbs and gutters in the two-block stretch of Pershing, but since last December has left the street grade about a foot and half higher than the grade of the new curbs and gutters.

Most driveways are still open, but those that are usable extend

RESIDENTIAL CRITICISM of delay in completing grading and resurfacing of two blocks of Pershing Boulevard is expressed in this sign which appeared on a utility pole on the street last week. Residents say the job halted in December has caused motorists problems in getting to and from their homes.

HIGH STREET GRADE shown at right creates a gap between it and the sidewalks visible at the left following construction of curbs and gutters. The street is to be graded to slope to the new gutter to drain the street. Sidewalks may remain at the present grade. This view is on Pershing Boulevard looking toward Garden Avenue. ### $2,500 damage in nearby fires

Two fires within sight of each other kept Granite City firemen busy for about an hour last week.

Firemen were called to A.O. Smith Corp. on Highway 3 where the motor on a steel coil loader was on fire.

It is believed the hot exhaust manifold caught hoses and electrical wires on fire. Firemen were on the scene 20 minutes and damage was estimated at $1,500.

When firemen left A.O. Smith, they passed a car on the edge of the highway which had experienced mechanical difficulties and had been left by its owner, Chris Norman, 2578

Washington Ave., who walked to a service station for aid.

Firemen noted no signs of fire in the car, but later they were called to a fire in the car, parked between A.O. Smith Corp. and the Granite City Humane Shelter.

The interior of the car was described as "completely engulfed in flames" when firemen arrived. Firefighters were unable to save the auto, which was destroyed. It was valued at $1,000.

The possibility of arson is being explored, since the flames spread so rapidly in the auto.

The schedule of the Gateway Arch Transportation System, operated by the Bi-State Development Agency, will be extended on Friday, Saturday and Sunday beginning this week, in order to better accommodate the increasing number of tourists visiting the facility, Bi-State Executive Director Robert J. In May, Monday-Thursday transportation system hours will remain 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The system will be open each Friday from 9:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. and each Saturday and Sunday from 8:45 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Hearing in the new Chouteau town hall

A Chouteau Township public hearing has been scheduled for the new township building at 5 p.m. Wednesday, May 11, even though the structure has not been completed.

A letter from the Wilson Construction Co., Godfrey, general contractor of the town hall and community center building now under construction, was read to the Town Board last week.

In the letter, the Wilson firm related that sections of the building already completed by Wilson have been damaged by subcontractors and will have to be repaired.

Since repair of the damage will cause an extra charge, the letter suggested that the board withhold a portion of the contract price from each of the subcontractors until it can be determined who should pay for the repair work.

The board agreed to place the letter on file and to send a copy to John Rapp, architect of the building, since Rapp is serving in an advisory capacity during the construction.

Even though the new building is not yet finished, Mrs. Patricia Polley, town clerk, set an upcoming public hearing on revenue sharing for May 11 in the new building.

She said the time of 5 p.m. was chosen because the lights may not yet be operating and the sun should provide sufficient lighting.

The initial revenue sharing hearing is to give citizens an

EXHIBIT TRACES FLIGHT PROGRESS

Patricia Beck, 17, found dead

Mrs. Patricia M. Beck, 17, of 2817 Pershing Blvd., was found without signs of life in her bed about 7:55 a.m. Saturday and was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8:15 a.m. Saturday.

An investigation by Madison County Deputy Coroner Randall Irwin. Authorities said some empty pill containers were found in Mrs. Beck's home. Irwin estimated Mrs. Beck had been dead about five hours when she was found.

Body fluid samples were taken Saturday and an inquest will be held after chemical tests are completed.

Mrs. Beck's husband, the late Kevin Beck, died Jan. 25, 1976, of what a coroner's jury ruled was suicide due to "an overdose of combined drugs."

Unforgettable characters on CB

By LIL SQUAW
Citizen band radio has quite a few people who make the airwaves fun. These are the people I call characters.

Their radio personalities are such that, whenever they key up, the channel gets crazy and, I think, a lot more fun.

Of course, I run channel 5, so I'm more familiar with the "characters" there, but these kinds of personalities are on every channel.

Let's start the list with "Screaming Demon," "Shyboy" and "Osage Kid."

When these three are on the frequency at the same time, it gets crazy.

They round robin — talk back and forth just to each other — try to talk over each other and carry on in general.

Add to that a bit of "Super Cougar," alias "Geraldine," and it's a riot.

There are quite a few gals on the air who get things going.

"Busy Wiggles" is the lady with one of the sweetest, sweetest voices that makes the guys "break" for her constantly.

"Lil Cricket" is the biggest participant (constant talker) on any channel and "Mona Lisa" is running a close second.

"Straight Face" is another "crazy" lady.

There is a character from channel 22 called "Harpo." He is a teenager with a great sense of humor and the ability to imitate other people.

He can make you think he is "Little Joe" or "Scarecrow." "Little Joe" and "Scarecrow" are such characters in their own right that one could do an article on each that would take three or four pages.

"Little Joe" with his slow, drawn-out way of talking, and "Scarecrow" (from Collinsville) has a way about him that drives folks crazy for sure.

There are interesting people all over the band — "Gidget" on channel 8, "Lo Bo" from channel 12, "Apache" from 23, "Moonlady" from 17, "Red Wiggles," "Sir Galahad" and "King Crab" from 18, and we can't forget "Five and Dime" and "Union Man" (from Collinsville).

If you're on channel 5 late at night, you'll hear all kinds of characters — "Niteman," "Buccaneer," "Knot Head," "Blue Streak" and, never forget to mention, "Country Bumpkin" from St. Louis.

But my very favorite "personality" is on channel 12 occasionally. He channel hops a lot, and many channel 5 people know of him. I am referring to "Mr. Frito Bandito."

Frito lives in North St. Louis County and runs a 104 (very good) station in more ways than one. "Frito Bandito" is a beautiful person with a Mexican accent that is fantastic to listen to.

Talking to "Frito Bandito" is one of my favorite things, although I don't have the chance very often, since he's on the air very late at night.

Frito has wit, intelligence and charm. He'll clown around in such a way that he has 1000 breakers (people wanting to talk to him) whenever he's on the air.

He is always polite and courteous.

These are just a very few of the "characters" on the air. They, among others, make CB the most pleasurable kind of entertainment I know.

Catch 'ya later — the Lil Squaw — we're out.

Cancer Crusade 'Tag Days' set May 20-21

Citywide "Tag Days" for the Cancer Crusade in Granite City will take place Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, Mrs. Billie Schuler, American Cancer Society Crusade chairman here, announced today.

The public tag days have been rescheduled from April 21-22, she said.

Mrs. Schuler also reported that Crusade volunteers are planning a "road block" activity in June and the annual "Bike-A-Thon" in July.

Joe Lucido, who is serving as Crusade co-chairman, noted the 1976 "Bike-A-Thon" netted the Cancer Society more than $2,800.

"This July's 'ride for cancer' will be bigger and better than ever, with some interesting prizes to be offered the participants who collect the most money from sponsors," Lucido promised.

Rick Rose of Granite City, who is now listed in the Guinness Book of World Records, will run again in June in the annual Fay Bieworth Memorial Run.

The long-distance runner has raised over $2,000 for the Cancer Society so far.

Funds donated by the public to the society are allocated to research work to find a cure and for patient care, among others.

Percentage-wise, Mrs. Schuler said, the money collected is distributed as follows:

Research, 31 per cent; service and rehabilitation, 21 per cent; professional education, 11 per cent; crusade and management, 10 per cent; and public education, 16 per cent.

A statistical report for the first three months of the year indicated a total of 159 active cases involving 607 people. Of this, 83 were family cases, 10 unwed parents, 26 adoptive homes, 6 foster homes and 34 child welfare cases.

The treasurer's report for the first three months of 1977 shows a total disbursement of $1,876 for emergency relief.

A report on the Illinois Catholic Conference held in Springfield, Ill. was given and it was reported that at the banquet a testimonial plaque was presented to Msgr. William J. Cassin in gratitude for 40 years service.

The new president advised that the next meeting will be held in July to approve the proposed 1978 budget which will be presented to the United Way in August.

Yurko also asked Tom Nesbit and John Mink to continue as co-chairman of the building maintenance committee and asked for volunteers for the budget committee. The invocation was given by the Rev. James Hill, pastor of Sacred Heart Church.

Father Ralph Scherrer, OFM, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Madison, closed the meeting with prayers for Monsignors Mattingly and Cassin.

PREPARATION FOR ARBOR DAY, proclaimed by Illinois Governor James R. Thompson is made by members of garden clubs in Granite City who plant flowering crabapple trees at the entrance to the Madison County Bicycle and Nature Trail, located off Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach. The planting is part of the club's Bicentennial gift to the community. In observance of Arbor Day, the women also planted three of heaven shades trees, eight red and yellow twigged dogwood shrubs and a juniper

GC garden clubs mark Arbor Day

Continuing their Bicentennial program of developing the entrance to the Madison County Bicycle and Nature Trail, the garden clubs of Granite City have planted two flowering crabapple trees.

The plantings and beautification of the entrance site, off Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach, also served to commemorate Arbor Day which will be observed Friday.

The flowering crabapple trees, purchased by the group from the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, were placed on one side of the entrance fence, along with three trees of heaven shade trees, furnished by the Garden Study Club and the Gardenaires Garden Club, and an upright juniper evergreen shrub.

Club members also held a work day this week at the planting site to repaint the fence and sign, according to Mrs. Charles Kohl of the Gardenaires.

Law freedom's shield—Dixon

Law is the shield, not a restriction, of our basic American freedoms, Alan J. Dixon, Illinois secretary of state, said Friday.

Dixon was the featured speaker at dedication of a freedom shrine in the jury assembly room of the St. Clair County Courthouse.

The freedom shrine is an exhibit of 28 historic American documents, dating from the Mayflower Compact of 1620 to the Japanese surrender instrument which ended World War II on Sept. 2, 1945.

It was presented by the Exchange Club of Fairview Heights and Belleville, cooperating with the St. Clair County Bar Association as part of Law Day observances.

"The relationship of law and freedom has special significance to me," said Dixon, "partly because I am a lawyer and partly because I helped make the laws of Illinois for 30 years as a member of the General Assembly."

"We think of law as a set of rules written by authorities to regulate and govern human behavior. But law is the guaranty of the freedoms we cherish which have made America great."

"Of the 28 documents in the freedom shrine, which of them could be more significant than No. 11 in the series, the proposal of Congress in 1789 to amend the new Constitution?"

"The document was changed before it was ratified by the states in 1791. But the basic freedoms are in both documents. We call the final one the Bill of Rights."

"Freedom of worship, of speech, of the press..."

"The right to assemble

Acupuncture philosophy to be topic

The Continuing Education Program of the SIUE School of Nursing will offer a two-day workshop for nurses who wish to learn more about the philosophy of Chinese medicine as it relates to acupuncture.

Betty Boyd Walker, director of the program, said the workshop will be held May 16 and 23 from 4 until 7 p.m. in the Mississippi-Illinois Room of the University Center on the local campus.

Registration for the two-day workshop will be $5. Participants who attend both sessions will earn a certificate for six contact hours. To be assured of a place at the workshop, they need to register by May 9.

Instructor for the course will be Margaret Chang, assistant professor of nursing at the university.

Purpose of the workshop will be to introduce the basic principles of Chinese traditional diagnosis as it relates to acupuncture and to teach the basic laws used in acupuncture treatments.

Topics to be covered during the workshop include: Chi energy and the Yin-Yang concept; the law of the five elements—fire, water, earth, metal and wood; meridians and energy circulation; principles of Chinese traditional diagnosis; and nursing implications.

peaceably to present grievances...

"Freedom from unreasonable search and seizure..."

"Freedom from double jeopardy..."

"The right to due process of law, and to trial by jury."

"Those are some of the basic freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, as amended."

"They have been extended and reformed during the last two centuries by federal, state and local legislation," Dixon continued.

"It was not until 1863 that we abolished slavery with the Thirteenth Amendment, No. 21 in the freedom shrine series."

"It was not until 1920, within the lifetime of many now among us, that we extended to women the right to vote with Document No. 24 in this series—the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution."

"The basic freedoms of our American way do not include freedom to kill our neighbor, or to shoot 'first' in a crowded theater, or to drive a car while intoxicated."

"Freedom implies responsibility. Such violations of the law as I have mentioned actually are violations of the freedom of others to live, assemble and travel safely."

"Law is the shield and guardian of our basic freedoms."

"Law existed in primitive times, even before writing was invented. It works as long as it is accepted by the people and obeyed. Rejection by the people can modify a law or set it aside entirely."

"Because we are a nation governed by law, rather than by men, we are a free people. We decide whom we wish to lead us. We speak our minds freely, and we make our decisions by a peaceful political process—the ballot."

"Our self-government is the oldest constitutional democracy on earth. It is up to us to keep the freedoms we have by respecting our laws and making our system work."

"Our system has done more to reduce poverty, to improve education, to create equality of opportunity than any other civilization since the dawn of time."

"We sent astronauts to the moon, and a space ship to Mars."

"Our young people are the best educated in history. We are better fed, better housed, and live longer than any previous generation."

"We have problems, but none that a free people cannot solve. We hear we are running out of gas. We know prices have been rising—of food, of energy, of housing, of health care, of schooling."

"But a free people, discussing and deciding under law, will find a way."

"If you think we have problems, read Patrick Henry's instruction to George Rogers Clark, No. 5 in the freedom shrine series. It was written when Illinois was a county of Virginia, and Patrick Henry was our governor. Providing enough bear bacon and bread to sustain the troops is no longer a problem in Illinois."

Face metrics will be topic

Eleanor Berkman, creator of television Channel 9's Face Watcher series, will be the guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce at Shooter's Steak House, Rt. 203, Thursday, May 12, at 6:30 p.m. She will speak on "The Comedy of Facial Error."

Metrics," and share her beauty secrets.

Some remember her as the original producer of The Trouping Theater. Others know her as a children's drama and vocal coach and some saw her as an entertainer on the West Coast before her marriage to Walter Berkman, a St. Louis attorney.

She learned about make-up in classes at the Giller Actor's Lab and the Dance and Drama Workshop run by Nico Charisse and Ethel Gray (Dorothy Gray's sister) in Hollywood.

She says she learned more make-up tricks from professional actors backstage than from cosmeticians. The secret to the condition of Eleanor Berkman's unlined face and throat after 50 years is said to be a simple stretching elastic exercise that she developed to help her stomach muscles, build better breath control and improve her posture.

She discovered that this exercise helped her maintain the vigor and health that she needed when her career was singing and acting in entire operas. Another result of this exercise, and others, was that the muscles in her cheek, chin, jaw and neck were automatically tightened as well, she relates.

She began compiling material for her book, "Drama-Metrics for Face Watchers," when she was a young vocal student at the Metropolitan Opera School and the Julius Hart School of Music in Hartford, Conn.

Reservations for the May 12 meeting may be made by calling the Chamber office at 876-4400. All women are being invited to attend the program.

Missionary Society hears Mrs. Phelps

Mrs. Harriett Phelps presented a lesson entitled, "No Retirement From Witnessing" at the monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Mount Zion General Baptist Church, last week.

The meeting opened with a hymn by Geraldine Sharp accompanied by Joyce Hale at the piano. Prayer was offered by a devotion given by Arathia Ruffelt on "Take Up Thy Cross."

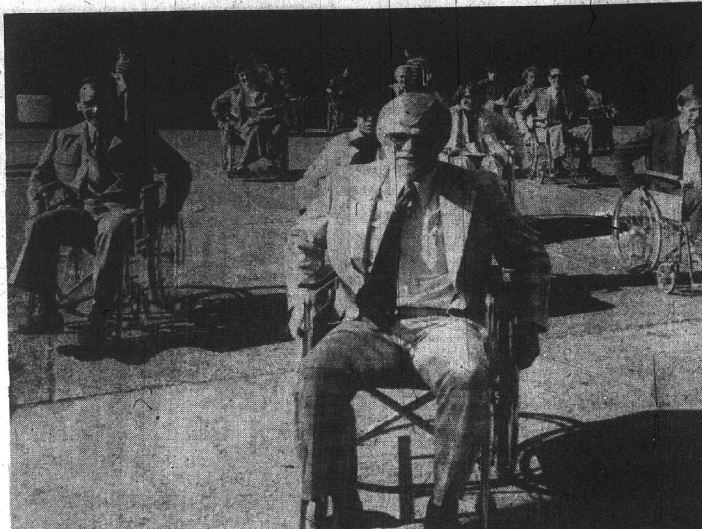

President Mrs. Sharp conducted the meeting and a report on the Illinois One Day Missionary convention was given by Loretta Gonnell, Joyce Hale, Nora Sutt and the president.

Mrs. Hale was elected organist at the convention and will serve as an officer at the 1978 convention, it was announced.

Canvass confirms Venice vote

Unofficial vote results in the Tuesday, April 19, Venice city election were unchanged by a canvass conducted by the City Council last week.

The official vote count in Wards One through Four respectively were: Mayor William Ebersold, 175-254-392-266, total 993; Lloyd Patterson, city clerk, 173-257-296-256, total 982; William Griggs, city treasurer, 174-251-391-298, total 984; Ward One, E. Harry Buente 175; Ward Two, Hank A. Svezia 259; Ward Three, John Ervin 314; Helen Ruth King 59; Ward Four, Tyrone Echols 263. Total votes cast by wards were 132-278-304-277, a total of 1,129, with 37 spoiled ballots.

Following the canvass and passage of the resolution making it official, Patterson administered the oath to Mayor Ebersold. The mayor, in turn, gave the oath to Patterson.

The four new aldermen and treasurer also were given their oaths of office. Mayor Ebersold said, "I would like to thank the aldermen and the people of Venice for returning myself and the aldermen to office. I know all of us will continue to do the best job we can for all the citizens."

"We have a lot of work cut out for us. In these times, making ends meet is a problem everyone faces, including cities, but we will do the best we can for our Venice people." Henry Baucum, retiring city treasurer who did not seek reelection, said, "I would like to express my sincere thanks to everyone on the council and particularly Carl Byrnes for all his help as city comptroller and I wish everyone well for the coming four years."

FORCE REAR DOOR OPEN

A rear door was forced open to gain entry to the home of Nadine McGriff, 2609 Cayuga St., it was reported last week. The owner said a large quantity of items was taken, but she did not detail missing items, pending completion of a list.

Jury service an honor and duty

By JOAN FABISHER

A jury in Madison County consists of 12 men and women picked at random from voter registration lists. In most cases, this is the only way in which an ordinary citizen may take a direct part in the process of government, aside from voting.

The role of a juror is one of the basic, essential components of our judicial system.

Each juror should be proud to partake in a right that was one of the original reasons for the Revolution. Everyone should be conscious of the honor to participate in a privilege which our ancestors died for.

However, when called for jury duty, the average citizen is somewhat unprepared. Our educational system mainly equips a person to cope with his responsibilities as a voter, rather than a juror.

More attention should be paid to the judicial system of our government.

A citizen does not know what is expected of him when he is summoned to the courthouse. But — however a person regards jury duty — it is an honor.

A summons for jury duty means that a citizen is credited with being a member in good standing of his community, and also acknowledges that he has never been convicted of a felony or crime.

This does not mean that if one is excused from the jury, he has a disreputable character. He may be dismissed for any number of legitimate reasons. If either the defending lawyer or the prosecutor objects to a juror's involvement, he may be excused from a specific case.

Our forefathers considered the right of trial by jury to be so important that it is guaranteed three times in the United States Constitution.

In Article III, The Judiciary, Section 2, written in the main body of the Constitution, guarantees a trial by jury to every citizen when he is charged with a crime.

In the Bill of Rights, two amendments also insure judicial rights; the Sixth allots the right of jury trial to criminal cases; the Seventh extends this right to civil cases.

Also, every one of the 50 states' constitutions includes a provision guaranteeing jury trials. These provisions prove the far-reaching foresight of our ancestors.

These stipulations written into our constitutions delegate a great amount of responsibility to each person sitting on a jury. Consider that perhaps at one time or another, a person may assume the role of a plaintiff, defendant or witness. He is, then, in a position to observe the jury presiding at the trial.

If it doesn't deliver a fair decision, or is sloppy and inattentive, he won't have any esteem for its jurors, or the judicial system. Low esteem of the jury system undermines the entire judicial system.

Since ordinary people constitute a jury, it is essential to instill trust and respect into our judicial system, because its actions reflect, good and bad, on the people and the government. So while a juror is serving, he should keep in mind the responsibility of his job.

If he serves honestly and fairly, he will have increased the honor of the judicial system, no matter how small a case is involved.

Each case should be considered equally important as any other, because the decision affects people who are part of the whole nation, and it may even affect the juror himself. That is the reason our forefathers had the prudence to guarantee to each individual the right they considered immensely important.

Trojans 2nd in 16-school meet

The O'Fallon Panthers captured their own 12th annual track and field relay invitational meet Thursday afternoon, garnering 89 points to runner-up Madison's 85 in the 16-school event.

Mascoutah and Bethalto tied for third, each with 41 points. Coach Charles Steptoe's Trojans, winners in 1972 and second last year, pulled to within seven points of the Panthers after Carl Hicks, Duane Bochatin, James Heard and Ron Morris combined to win the varsity 440-yard relay in 46.3 seconds.

An apparent first place for Madison in the freshman-sophomore 880 relay event would have earned the Trojans 10 points and the lead. But the squad was disqualified when one of the runners stepped out of the baton-exchange zone, resulting in second-place O'Fallon being declared the victor.

Competing in winds gusting to 25 miles per hour, O'Fallon won

Triple play by Schroeder
Granite Cityan Barry Schroeder, member of an East Alton men's slow-pitch softball team, glossed up an 11-0 victory for the Trojans in a district park last week, turning a triple play in the final frame.

Schroeder caught a line drive up the middle by an opposing batter whose team had runners at first and second with no outs. He immediately tagged second and threw to first to retire the side.

MITCHELL CLUB PLANS COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP
Selection will be made by a panel of five persons tomorrow of a recipient of an initial Mitchell Athletic Club $200 college athletic scholarship from among applicants of both Granite City high schools.

At Hallett, club treasurer, said each applicant must be a graduating senior this spring, and is required to have participated in a minimum of two years in any club sports program. Hallett noted that students desiring to be considered for a scholarship next year should consult a guidance counselor at the school or he should attend.

300 honor the 'Supersport' of '77—Robin Deterding

Miss Robin Deterding, who three times claimed the Missouri speed-skating championship by the age of 14 and later was a varsity four-letter scholar-athlete at Granite City High School, took time out from her studies as a pre-medical student at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale to accept a $1,000 scholarship here Friday as the nation's first female "Supersport."

The oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Deterding of Granite City, Miss Deterding honored during ceremonies here by more than 300 persons in South High auditorium.

Representatives from Teen Magazine and Burlington Socks-Award, New York, cited her activities which earned her top honors over more than 16,000 other athletes.

The 18-year-old daughter of the "Warrior boys" basketball coach distinguished herself during her high school career in tennis, volleyball, basketball and track in addition to playing shortstop three years for the state women's slow-pitch softball championship team, Petrolite Produce.

Schrader wins in 25 laps
Defensive driving, and a little bit of luck, helped Missouri driver Schrader hang on for 25 laps of the half-mile dirt oval of Tri-City Speedway and win the 150-mile stock car division feature race Saturday night.

Though he led from the start, Schrader was pressured throughout by former three-time track champion Will Spalding of Ponton Beach and C. Corbin of East Alton.

The three clung to each other's bumpers. They somehow managed to run side-by-side without touching going through the corners, and Schrader finally edged out Spalding in the 25th lap.

North girls 7th in relays
Belleville West's girls' track and field team took top honors Saturday in both varsity and junior varsity events of the annual eight-school Alton relays.

The Maroons claimed first place in varsity competition with 96 points while GRCS North was seventh with 10. West topped the junior varsity field with 65 points, and North High had two points for eighth place.

Schools placing in order behind West in the varsity division were East St. Louis Lincoln 60, Belleville East 44%, Summer of St. Louis 36, Alton 22%, Edwardsville 16, GRCS North and Jacksonville eight. Included in long jump—Dawn Ford 2nd; shot put—Tina Taylor 4th; 440 relay—Rhonda Schilling, Clara Bates, Dawn Ford, Laura Fineshimer 5th; two-mile relay—Barbara Miller, Laurie Hernes, Edna Thomas, Lisa Sobol 5th.

Junior varsity action saw Summer earn 51 points for second place, East St. Louis 28, Lincoln 22, Edwardsville nine, Alton six and North. For North, Brenda Watts placed the varsity in discus throwing and the mile relay team of Tammy Hanfelder, Lisa McKee, Helen Goeller and Pat Smith was fifth.

North beats Madison but loses to Tigers

GRCS North's doubleheader at Edwardsville Saturday turned into a slugfest for the Tigers twice and the Steelers once. Edwardsville collected 11 hits in each game enroute to winning 14-0 and 10-0.

Scoring five runs in the opening frame, two in the third and four in the sixth, Edwardsville ended the game then by its 10-run lead.

Accounting for North's four hits were Bob Batey, two, and Kevin Hayes and Rusty Gregory.

The Steelers saw chances to score vanish twice. With two out in the second and the bases loaded, the Tigers retired a North batter in the fifth frame with one away. North got two singles but then hit into a double play.

North saw an 8-7 fifth-inning edge evaporate when the Tigers tied the second game in the sixth. Edwardsville outscored the Steelers 2-1 in the final frame.

Six Steelers crossed the plate in the second inning, putting Coach Robert Stegmeyer's squad ahead 6-3. Bruce Wright was hit by a pitch, and Dan Harper walked and, following a wild pitch, Rich Willard walked. Doug Rains doubled and Mike Simpson singled. A run scored on a throwing error during a double steal attempt, and Hayes singled in a run.

Edwardsville scored four times in the third for a 7-6 lead.

North deadlocked the game in the fourth when Willard walked, Rains reached base on an error and Willard scored when an infielder booted a grounder.

North's go-ahead run came in the fifth as Page and Batey singled. The top-of-the-seventh-inning frame was the result of a Page walk, Batey's hit and Gregory's sacrifice.

The Steelers netted the winning run in the sixth inning Thursday without collecting a hit in that frame, to defeat host Madison 2-1.

Ray Peoples went the distance for the Trojans, hurling a three-hitter, while Doug Rains allowed five hits.

The Steelers fielded flawlessly and Madison erred twice, including one error which allowed Batey to reach base in the sixth. He stole second and North's go-ahead run came on a groundout by Jeff Hamilton.

North had scored twice in the third when Terry Page and Jodi Faison walked and advanced on a wild pitch, and Bruce Wright singled.

Trojan nine divides

Hillsboro and Madison High School split a twinned Saturday on the Trojan Field. The Hilltoppers won 7-3 and then bowed 5-1.

Trojan Pete Feurica yielded three hits and sparked Madison to victory with a two-run homer in the sixth inning.

Hillsboro scored in the first and Madison tied it in the fifth when Joe Piechocinski doubled and Ray Peoples singled.

A total of four Trojans crossed the plate in the sixth, with Woodson hitting safely, Feurica walking and Tom Jones singling both in.

But the two writers scored six runs in the third on five hits, a walk and an error.

The Trojans scored in the final frame when Prince Giles singled, John Palchett walked and Brian Eaves delivered a sacrifice fly.

Careless diggers can damage phone cables

Pick up the phone before you pick up that shovel — the telephone cable you uproot may be your own, K. L. Evers, Granite City manager of Illinois Bell, warned today.

Whether you're excavating a building foundation or merely transplanting shrubbery, your digging can interrupt vital telephone service to hospitals, fire and police departments, Evers said, noting that Illinois Bell advises contractors and homeowners to check the location of buried cables before breaking ground.

Illinois Bell has more than 39 million miles of wire in underground cable. It is practically immune to wind, snow, sleet and gnawing animals. But power shovels, drills, pile drivers and trenching tools — even garden spades — can do plenty of harm, Evers said.

Careless diggers damaged nearly 2,000 Illinois Bell cables last year, disrupting phone service to thousands of customers and causing $60,000 in damage. In addition, business firms lost sales from interrupted communications and emergency phone arrangements had to be made for vital public services.

In some cases, diggers received bills from the telephone company for damage they caused to telephone cables.

In other communities, a call to Illinois Bell's repair service will help avoid damage. The repair service telephone number is in the telephone directory on Call-Guide Page One.

Back yard gardeners should be especially careful to avoid digging up the buried phone cables and service wires that have replaced poles and aerial wires in many newer neighborhoods, Evers warned. The service wire usually runs less than a foot underground from a phone cable terminal to the house.

Illinois Bell will send an employee to mark a cable's location. Telephone company engineers meet with builders and contractors who are planning major jobs such as highways and housing developments. Whenever you're putting around in the subsoil, Illinois Bell asks that you not touch that shovel until you're certain it won't cut a telephone wire, Evers concluded.

The equity in your house is like money in your pocket.

Equity is the difference between how much your home is worth, and what you owe on it. Right here. Right now.

It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan. For whatever you have in mind.

Real-estate values are up, up, up.

So the house you bought just a few years ago probably would sell for a lot more than you paid.

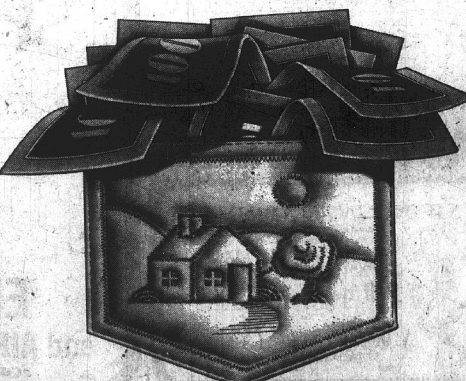

Which means your equity is bigger.

And the bigger your equity, the more you can borrow in a large real-estate loan.

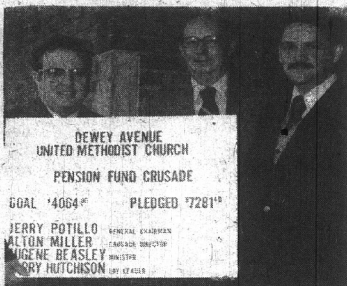

Right here. Right now. Maybe the money you're looking for is already in the house.

PTA Council to consider fight against TV violence

Mrs. Dorothy Baker, president of the Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, has announced that a discussion on the national PTA program to reduce television violence will be the highlight of the May meeting.

Tentative plans will be formed to combat TV violence on a local level, with an intensified program to become effective during the fall and winter months, she added.

The National PTA launched its first action plan in July with a letter-writing campaign to top executives of local TV stations, commenting on both exemplary and objectionable programming. They sent copies to the networks, program advertisers and individual stations.

If there is no substantial response from the networks by Jan. 1, 1978, the National PTA will consider alternative courses of action, such as boycotts of advertisers, programs, and local stations; selected test cases of petitions to deny licensing and civil litigation, it was reported. The direction of the first action plan evolved from the recommendations made by the nearly 500 individuals who testified at the PTA's eight public hearings on TV violence, conducted in major cities during the past few months.

Some recurrent themes emerged from these hearings: Officers said findings of the PTA's TV Commission indicate that the public is most concerned about:

1. Aggression — Many children become more aggressive in their behavior due to the influence of TV violence, acting out the hostility portrayed on television.

2. Imitative Behavior — Some young people will be led to imitate violent acts in direct imitation of similar behavior seen on TV.

3. Desensitization — Among youth and adults, there is a growing callousness and indifference to violence and the suffering it causes, due to the quantity and intensity of violence on television.

4. Distortion — Perceptions by children and youth of real life problem-solving methods are distorted by TV, which portrays violence as a sure and easy way to solve all problems. Non-violent methods, such as discussion, negotiation, and compromise, which are prevalent and acceptable to society, are not given equal time.

5. Paranoia — Youth and adults who regularly view TV violence are becoming more fearful of violence occurring in real life. Although violence is a reality in day-to-day living, the proportion of violent acts seen on television far surpasses actuality.

6. Quality of Life — Continued exposure to television's parade of murder, rape, arson, assault, and other violence to persons and property diminishes the quality of life for both children and adults.

Much debated during the hearings was the question of who is ultimately responsible for resolving the problem of TV violence, it was noted. A number of broadcasters said, in effect: "Parents should lock up the TV set." Members of the PTA's TV Commission, however, found this response unacceptable. While the commission believes that parents should supervise children's TV viewing, to eliminate unsuitable programs, it also feels that the responsibility for the problem must be shared.

Essentially, the broadcaster — both local stations and the networks — have the responsibility to present programs which are in the public interest, and not injurious to children and youth, the organization maintains. The burden of proof that program content is not injurious lies with the broadcaster, not the public. The advertiser has a similar responsibility in the choice of shows he sponsors, the PTA holds.

Separate university foundations

The retirement of Charles B. Schweizer from his positions with the Edwardsville Division of the Southern Illinois University Foundation was announced Thursday afternoon.

Announcement by SIUE President Kenneth A. Shaw of future directions of the Foundation, staffing of the Foundation administration office, and election of officers of the newly established Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Foundation also highlighted meetings Thursday afternoon at the Foundation offices on the SIUE campus.

President Shaw said he will recommend to the SIUE Board of Trustees Schweizer's retirement as director of Foundation administration, effective July 1, in response to a letter from Schweizer dated March 15 requesting retirement.

Shaw said Schweizer will continue to work with the Foundation as a part-time consultant after his retirement. Other staffing changes announced by the president include:

—Alfred Junz, research associate on the staff of Senior Vice-President Ralph W. Ruffner and executive director of the St. Louis Regional Council on Interinstitutional Cooperation (CIC), will become director of the Foundation administration office.

—A. R. Howard, special assistant to Senior Vice-President Ruffner currently assigned to development work at the Olin Conference and Cultural Center, will become an assistant to Junz in the Foundation administration office.

—On an interim basis, Ruffner will serve as executive director of the Foundation. The president said, "It is expected that Mr. Junz will phase into this activity as we develop the most effective balance between his Foundation and CIC responsibilities."

—Mrs. GeorgeAnn Bergschneider will serve as administrative secretary in the Foundation administration office.

office. She has been with SIUE since 1961 and currently is secretary to Junz in the CIC office.

Mrs. Bergschneider will replace Mrs. Kenneth R. Blackman, who resigned recently. Mrs. Elizabeth Bettmann, is serving as secretary in the interim.

Announcing future directions for the Foundation, Dr. Shaw said, "My basic charge to the Foundation—and to all parts of the university—is to assist with the overall goal of making SIUE the best of its kind anywhere."

"It is quite evident that current and probably future state appropriations for the university will be such that we will be hard-pressed to meet basic needs of the institution."

He praised Schweizer for his "tremendous job" as director of Foundation administration.

"Accordingly, we will have to turn more than ever to private monies to achieve that margin of excellence which a great university must have."

The president said the move to increase fund-raising should involve:

—Determination of the institution's top priorities and most critical funding needs.

—A structured plan for seeking funds.

—Establishment of an annual fund drive in the fall, whereby the Foundation will be appealing to "a target number of 10,000 people to give financial support for our margin of excellence."

He praised Schweizer for his "tremendous job" as director of Foundation administration and executive director of the Edwardsville Division of the SIUE Foundation, a retired colonel with 28 years of service with the U.S. Army, has been associated with the Foundation since 1966. He formerly was commandant of the Granite City Army Base.

Dr. Shaw said the financial assets of the Foundation have increased "a hundred-fold"—from about $10,000 in 1966 to more than a million dollars at the present.

"Under his leadership and with his assistance, the Edwardsville Division of the Foundation will become very shortly an independent development organization for the university," the president said.

Harold R. Fischer of Granite City, vice-chairman of the First Granite City National Bank, is president of both the SIUE Foundation and the Edwardsville Division of the Foundation.

Following the Thursday meeting of the board of governors of the Edwardsville Division, the same group met with the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Foundation and elected officers as follows:

President—Jul M. Fischer Sr., Belleville; vice-president—Rayhill J. Hagist, Highland; executive director—Charles Schweizer, Edwardsville; secretary—Elizabeth Bettmann, Edwardsville; treasurer—Edward S. Daniel, Highland; and legal counsel—Gary R. Coffey, Edwardsville.

The new organization will operate as a "parallel organization" without assets or liabilities until an official transfer of assets and liabilities is made by the SIUE Foundation.

A resolution was adopted by the board of governors of the Edwardsville Division, recommending that the board of directors of the SIUE Foundation make the transfer from the division to the new organization at the June meeting of the Foundation directors.

If the transfer goes forward as recommended, the new independent organization would become operable July 1. Reasons cited for the new organization include "the different needs and interests of the Edwardsville and Carbondale campuses of SIUE."

It was pointed out that separate divisions of the SIUE Foundation were established for each campus in 1973 "in response to the differences between the two institutions."

Schweizer said the establishment of the new organization would become operable July 1.

Travelers Abroad view pictures of Mexico City

Travelers Abroad met at Prather Junior High School with President Alfred Stoeber presiding and viewed pictures shown by Mrs. George Stearns of her recent trip to Mexico City.

The pictures included the Cathedral on the Zocalo, the largest in Latin America, started in 1573 but not completed until 1810; Chapultepec, a forest park with a castle, museum, zoo, and lakes; several homes of the upper classes and views of religious processions.

Among the latter was the annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of Guadalupe, with bells ringing, firecrackers exploding and religious relics and banners floating.

Some devout pilgrims, however, walk several miles on their knees in approaching the shrine, Mrs. Stearns said. There were views of the Pyramids of San Juan Teotihuacan, built in pre-Columbian days and now restored by the government.

When President Stoeber asked how many members had ever been to Mexico, two-thirds of those present raised their hands. A discussion of adventure, mishaps, impressive sights, and unforgettable experiences followed. Mrs. Blanche Edwards was a guest.

GC Marine drill sergeant faces court martial

Staff Sgt. John R. Bradley, 24, of Granite City, a Marine drill instructor, has been charged with assaulting recruits at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, Calif.

Charges against Bradley include 14 counts of striking the recruits' fingers and toes, two counts of grabbing them by their shirts and three counts of striking their face with the bill of his cap, an officer at the depot said.

According to a Marine Corps spokesman, some of the charges stem from Bradley apparently standing so close to recruits that his cap touched their faces.

A special court martial is scheduled to convene Thursday, May 12.

Bradley could face a six-month sentence at hard labor, a 12-month reduction in pay, a reduction to private or a possible bad conduct discharge, the officer said.

Senate-passed bill threat to urban property owners

Urban areas of Madison County undoubtedly will react sharply to a portion of Senate Bill 343. The legislation already has passed the Illinois Senate and is in the House of Representatives.

As it is currently worded, the bill needs to be defeated or amended because it would exempt all farm improvements—buildings and other buildings—on farm land from the county's general property tax. This would eliminate $234 million of this county's overall property tax base of $1,100,000,000.

Loss of over a fifth of the assessment would place a heavy burden on other property owners elsewhere.

The basic proposal perhaps has merit in that it seeks to substitute for farm land valuations an alternative procedure, utilizing farm income derived from farm production and average sale price of farmland. But inclusion of the reference to farm improvements makes the legislation unacceptable.

Grand jury to decide yesterday's fatal shooting case

Yesterday's fatal shooting in a Delmar Avenue alley is arousing considerable attention because no charges have been filed and a confessed suspect remains free. He alleges that he was defending his property by thwarting what he believed was a gasoline theft attempt.

State's Attorney Nicholas Byron told the Press-Record today, "I feel this is the kind of case which should be taken directly to the grand jury and let the accused man's peers decide what is just. Let the grand jury see all the facts, hear all the testimony and then decide." He said such deliberations will take place on Thursday.

Mr. Byron noted there are several ways to accuse persons of crimes, including signing a criminal complaint against them, indicting them through grand jury action, or filing criminal informations against them.

"All bear equal weight and we decided to use the grand jury in this case," the state's attorney said.

Concerned with both crime reduction and preservation of life, Quad-Cityans will watch the case with great interest.

Wrathful confrontation developing for Tuesday night

Efforts to encourage attendance at tomorrow night's City Council meeting in Granite City may make it one of the most dramatic in years.

Officials elected or re-elected April 5 are to be inaugurated for four-year terms. And Street Superintendent Lionel Portell has asked residents to urge aldermen to rescind their 11-2 vote of April 26 making his office appointive rather than elective.

Opponents of the appointment decision cite Mr. Portell's success at two elections, the fact that the action was not discussed publicly in advance, and the fact that five of those casting votes either lost reelection bids or were defeated in the election.

Many who hold this view cite numerous accomplishments during Mr. Portell's service on the street department. They feel that should the incumbent officials should hold neighborhood meetings to more fully acquaint citizens with municipal issues. And they voice fear that an all-powerful political organization is being formed.

Council members have given no reason for their action. That the superintendent apparently has incurred the enmity of one or more aldermen in all seven wards seems to be indicated by the margin of the vote against the office remaining elective.

Consider appointing all city officials

To the Editor:

I read with interest your front page stories and the editorial concerning the council's decision to change the office of the superintendent of streets to an appointed position.

I must say that I am totally against this for several reasons.

First of all, I want no fewer elected city-wide officials than I presently have. I believe my vote as a resident and taxpayer of this city is best represented by men and not through more political appointments of any mayor. Citizens of this community are an enlightened people and the freedom to choose their officials should not be consolidated any more than is absolutely necessary.

A man appointed by a mayor will be responsible to the mayor. A man elected by the voters will be responsible to the citizens.

Secondly, this move is an obvious and blatant political trick. It is interesting to note that the council waited until the last possible minute for this maneuver.

If the city will benefit so greatly from this action, why wasn't it more widely publicized and discussed previously? We had the same council members a year ago as on April 26. Appointments to the office of the superintendent of streets to an appointed position would be a burden to the city.

Why did the city council find it necessary to suspend the rules, delete a second reading of the ordinance and vote to consider the final passage of the ordinance, all in one session?

The kind of decision, to remove one of the city-wide elected officials, deserves more consideration than the council has given it. It is a decision that will affect the city for many years to come.

Thirdly, I strongly disagree with the position of the Press-Record when its editorial comment reads that "divided authority over streets has been a burden to Granite City." Remember, the people of Granite City have found the work of the mayor and street superintendent to be acceptable and both have won two concurrent elections.

Appointments by the mayor to head city departments do not always create a harmonious effort.

Our fire and police departments are headed by appointees and supposedly nonpolitical. I would say these departments are headed by men who are much as much a political target as any other issue in a mayoral campaign.

Last, and certainly not least, concerns elected city officials. If our city does not need an elected street superintendent, then consideration should be given to appointing all city officials including the mayor.

For example, is the city treasurer's position, with many less employees, more important than the street department? The city treasurer has been in office for 18 months, a township supervisor will probably be appointed.

My husband was a street department employee for over 15 years and thus I feel somewhat familiar with the department and its operation.

To take away my right to vote for a city official is a privilege I am not ready to forfeit. I urge all Granite City residents to elect their aldermen, including those now out of office, the mayor and all other city officials and voice their opinion on this very important subject.

Not asked in advance about new law

To the Editor:

I was wondering how long it would be before the Patrolmen's Association would find out you can't buck City Hall."

How dare the city officials put old chestnuts, "It's for the good of the city" (making the street superintendent position appointive). We the people have had this position subject for many years.

All of a sudden, without warning, "for our own good, one of our rights has just been taken away. Granite Cityans, don't you care?"

I for one am very tired of being treated like a second-class citizen because I am not one of the powers-that-be.

They work for me and I don't like what they are doing. Mr. Baker said he represents all of us; well, I don't recall being asked about this new law, and I don't like it.

Superintendent Portell has two years left, so what was so urgent about passing that bill without asking the citizens? Price, East St. Auto, Guy Driven at a high rate of speed in the parking lot of A. O. Smith Corp. and north on Route 3 at 2:45 a.m. Friday. Price came out moments later and discovered the car had been stolen. It is a red 1960 Chevrolet Chevelle two-door auto.

Students running for the SUIU Board of Trustees are: Lorenzo Buford, junior from Madison; and James Grandone, junior from Alton.

Portell said the job was delayed because equipment needed for the street department repair of several major sewer breaks and could not be spared for the street job.

"In the first place," Portell told the Press-Record, "the contractors have only been off that job for a few weeks. It is our fault that this job has taken so long, but we're getting the big sewer program started."

He said the street department

Two arrested in assault case

Danny R. Poe, 18, of 2433 Logan Ave., and Tommy W. Gibson, 21, of 2326 Logan Ave., were arrested at 4:40 p.m. Saturday. They were charged with aggravated assault. They were arrested after a disturbance outside the city of Edwardsville.

Cycle in crash, driver charged

Burt Tomlinson, 22, of 2709 Iowa St., was charged with four traffic violations after an accident last week, and was served a warrant for failure to appear in court on an earlier traffic violation.

Police alleged the pickup truck, Ray Bowler, 2099 Mockingbird Lane, was stopped for traffic in the 2300 block of Patton road. Tomlinson's motorcycle struck the rear of the truck.

It appears Tomlinson gave them a false name and address at the scene of the accident. Despite visible injuries, he declined to be taken to the hospital.

He was charged with giving police incorrect information, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident, no motorcycle classification on his driver's license and no valid registration for the cycle.

He was served a warrant for alleged failure to appear in court on a previous careless driving charge.

After posting $135 bond and being released from the jail, Tomlinson went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted with a cut under his chin and scratches and bruises to his right knee.

Madison Junior High Band Plays Thursday

Sees action on Portell as vindictive

To the Editor:

I am disappointed in the way the council is handling the Portell case. I see this as a vindictive move against a man who has done a great deal for the city.
